Gerard Valentino's plain talk observations have made their way to the mainstream press, from an online political Blog to clip and paste show-ups on other sites to World Net Daily Commentaries and beyond. Gerard's remarks resonate with the insight America is looking for in reducing the issues to workable, discernible questions in order to begin on workable solutions. From how senators treat our generals to gun control to inside baseball to political corruption to familiar experiences as lessons we'll need to recall soon, The Valentino Chronicles collection of essays from one middle-class conservative makes worthy discussion between now and the next election. "Readers find his writing a refreshing viewpoint and soak it up, because such straightforward logic is so hard to find today." - Jim Irvine, Buckeye Firearms Association. "He is a staunch defender of the U.S. Constitution and conservative values, and has served his country and fellow citizens with honor. A true American Patriot." - Linda Walker, 2009 NRA Sybil Ludington Women's Freedom Award. "If, like me, you believe that decent citizens have the right to protect themselves and their loved ones from lethally violent criminals, Gerard will give you powerful ammunition with which to argue." - Massad Ayoob
